THE NEW DALLAS LOVE FIELD AIRPORT

DALLAS LOVE FIELD AIRPORT
NOW HAS TWO TERMINALS
FOR THE NEXT FOUR YEARS

Terminal One (T1) for
Continental Airlines & Delta Air Lines

Terminal Two (T2) for Southwest Airlines

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What is Terminal One (T1)?

T1 is a temporary, stand-alone terminal for Continental and Delta passengers with its own TSA checkpoint, ticketing, baggage check-in and claim area.

What is Terminal Two (T2)?

T2 is the current terminal servicing Southwest passengers with curbside check-in, TSA checkpoint, ticketing, baggage check-in and claim area.

Where do I park for T1 and T2?

Garage B is the most convenient parking area for T1 (Continental & Delta). Garages A or B are still convenient parking areas for T2 (Southwest).

How do I go between T1 and T2?

Utilize the Garage Pedestrian Bridge to go between T1 and T2.

Will construction impact my travel?

Construction should not impact travel schedules. We recommend you arrive early for flights and let shuttle drivers know your terminal for drop-off.
